

Whaika te Whakapono

Seek for the Truth - Follow the Truth

My full name is Patrick John O'Brien and I am a graduate of the Royal New Zealand Police College — a former sworn constable, undercover police officer and agent-provocateur who worked for Criminal Intelligence (C.I.S.) during the 1970s

In November 2007 I wrote to Chief Justice Dame Sian Elias and confessed to falsifying evidence to obtain convictions against my targets while working as an agent-provocateur for the government

My original, digitally signed confession in *.PDF format may be downloaded from here: <http://obrien.wordpress.com/confession>

I invite members of the District Law Society whose clients were victims of my operations in the Waikato to contact me directly by email in the first instance: patrick_john_obrien@hotmail.com

Should any of my targets wish to seek remedy for their criminal convictions, imprisonment and damages arising from my perjury I will assist in any way I can

Thank you

Yours sincerely

X-Constable 3667
